

Priest River Preparedness Expo
Terms and Conditions

In this contract, "Expo Management" shall refer to the Outreach Committee of the Newport Seventh-day Adventist Church, "Vendor" shall refer to the applicant applying for table space at this event.

Expo Management reserves the right to reject any application for any reason. Should application be rejected, payment will be returned/refunded to Vendor in full.

This Expo is a family friendly event. As such, Vendor agrees to not sell, distribute, or display anything deemed by Expo Management to be offensive; or to publicly use language or practice behavior that is deemed offensive to this family friendly atmosphere. If such materials or products are displayed/distributed/sold, Expo Management may require Vendor to remove such items from public view.

All signage and decorations shall be of a professional nature, shall be one-sided, and shall not face toward immediately adjacent tables.

Vendor agrees to apply by all applicable laws, including collection of Idaho sales tax.

Vendor agrees to comply with all standard fire regulations and safety practices.

Should this Expo be unable to take place due to natural disaster or other events, Expo Management shall be held harmless for the loss of any business, loss of profit, or other damages Vendor may incur. Should Vendor cancel this agreement less than 10 days before the Expo no refund will be issued, and table space will be available for Management to re-rent to another party.

Vendor move in time is from 6:00am - 9:45am on 3/19/17. Vendor move out time is from 6 - 8pm on 3/19/17. No tear down may be performed until after doors close. Please note that these times are subject to change, but in that event Vendors will be notified as soon as possible.

If you have any questions regarding this agreement, please contact Expo Management (Vendor coordinators - Loren & Jennifer Munson) at standprepared@gmail.com before submitting application.

Please initial